

We > Me - Week One

“Sunday-Go-To-Meetin”

Hebrews 10:24-25

Now more than ever, we need together.

In this series—answering the question: “Does Church Still Matter?”

Study done in 2014 of “Nones” - asking their opinion on Christians

Christians Act Like God Doesn’t Really Matter

Truth: We get more excited about everything else...

Sleeping In Church & Other Exciting Stories

It Makes Sense—

Netflix has more drama; the golf club has friendlier people, the park has a nicer view...

And no one is asking you for a pledge card...

Or a bunch of other uncomfortable things....

But Something Happens When We’re Together...

It’s mystical, wild and wonderful—and it doesn’t have to be boring...

It’s not about style... it’s about a mindset...

And its better... together.

NOW MORE THAN EVER WE NEED TOGETHER

Hebrews 10:24-25

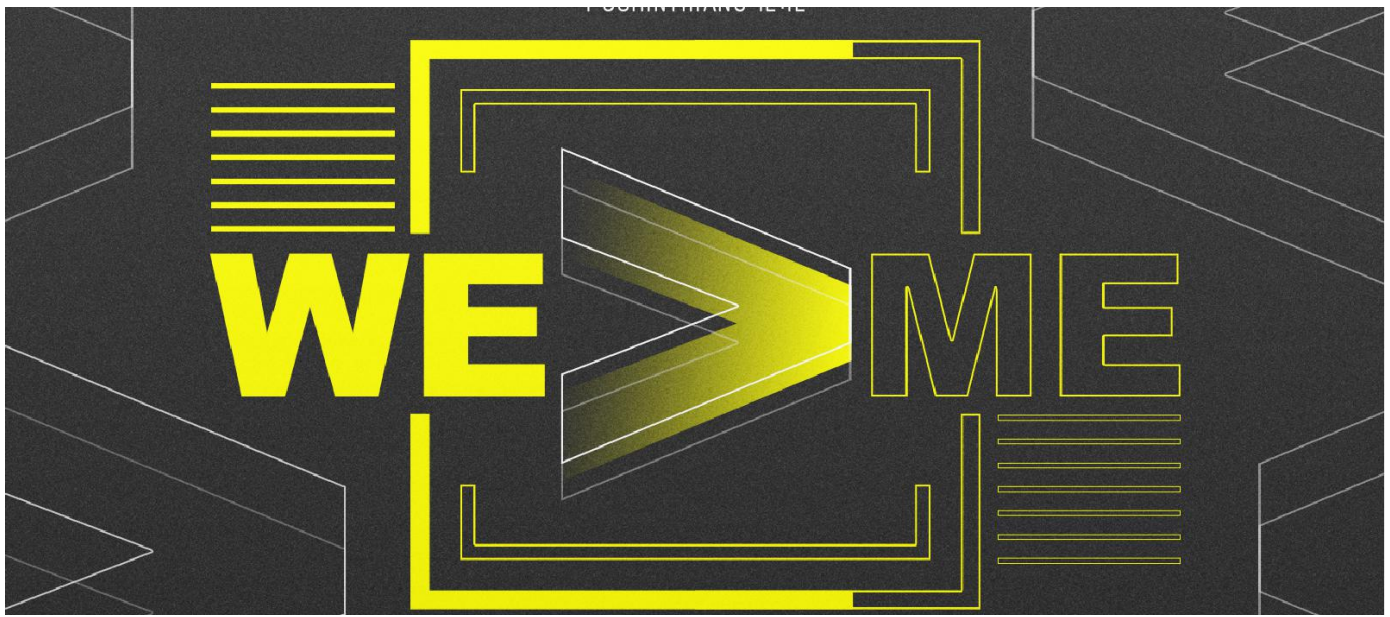

- It’s strangely comforting to see that 2000 years ago, the Church was having the same issues—people had given up on gathering.*
- End times, fear, divisions, you name it.*
- The Greek word for “spur” connotes encouragement, exhortation, boldness*

The writer envisions a community where fearless conversations and bold public witness informed the community’s journey with Jesus—together.

How Do We Live Into This Vision In This Challenging Context?

- When We > Me - Questions and doubts are welcomed.*
- When We > Me - It’s Okay to not be Okay*
- When We > Me - There is space for Fearless Conversations*
- When We > Me - We don’t quit on our community*

NOW MORE THAN EVER WE NEED TOGETHER
